ALEA Driver License Offices Closing in Observance of Juneteenth

MONTGOMERY – The Alabama Law Enforcement Agency (ALEA) has announced its Driver License Examining Offices across the state, as well as its other facilities, will be closed Friday, June 18, in observance of the nation’s new Juneteenth federal holiday. Gov. Kay Ivey declared the day upon President Biden’s declaration and signature, making June 19 an official holiday to commemorate the emancipation of slavery in the United States.

ALEA will resume regular operating hours Monday, June 21. For more information on the agency’s Driver License Division and other services, please visit www.alea.gov.
